Holy Land

Stormwind

See the holy land beyond the judean dessert the romans conquer our land but never our last fortress a fortress built to stand above the dead sea. They took our promised land but we died... Nobly and free!!!

Ooh holy land! We follow your spell! Our hands are free! We choose death rather than slavery!

A stronghold for a king against any enemy who might wage war ten men will slay us all to keep our spirit alive!

Brave and loyal followers! Holy land! We can die nobly and as free men! Holy land!
