

Ship of Salvation

Stormwind

Whatever may happen
be strong and follow your heart
no time to consider
the world you broke apart

why chase a shadow
from ancient times!
Why seek for answers,
forgiveness is all that you need!

A ship of salvation,
for every nation!
It's time to confess,
without remorse!

Fight!
And swallow your pride
whatever you're leaving behind!
Frustration and lost faith
from your own
hate!

Fight !
And swallow your pride
whatever you're leaving behind!
Looking for harmony?
Be true
and you will see!

Welcome the storm
a wind against your lies!
The earth will break and thunder worlds will be broken apart

you open your eyes
and see the skies
the time has come
and you are the one!

Escape from reality?
You're looking for sympathy!
It's time to confess
without remorse
