

Night Stalker

Stormwitch

It's midnight, a night-owl is howling on a withering tree but watch out, there's something Going on, on the cemetery the body-snatcher is digging up the graves bone-marauding no human corpse is safe

He's a night stalker
he's a grave-robber
he's a madman
he's eager for some prey
he's a night stalker
You got to call on him ten pounds are his pay

By the light of a candle he's doing his dirty work he shatters the coffins and the black rats are on the lurk the grave is plundered a dead dog lies close by a cab's removing the dawn is in the sky

he's a night stalker....
