Stormwitch

Lonely the beach was lying Golden fades the sun All his dreams, all hope was gone Since he saw her dying He can't find no more Peace of mind - a light behind the door He looses off the string And reads, without his heart "I chose your life - that's my part You want everything But you can't see the signs" He could read between the lines Somewhere we'll meet again, I know Somewhere, you'll take my hand Somewhere we'll meet again, I know Somewhere, far away, there is a land "We've just borrowed time Now listen, what I'll say Live rejoicing every day Fulfill the hope of mine And go just your own way We will meet again somdeday" [Chorus]
