

The Ghost of You and I

Story of the Year

You'll find in time
The brightest flame will slowly die
And bear the darkest night
Two eyes and everything that's meant to shine
Burns out before your eyes

Tonight were longing for daylight
Burning the same lie
To find the ghost of you and I
We're running for midnight
Dying to ignite
To find the ghost of you and I

Yeah
Cause tonight the fire that we hold inside
It wants to burn so bright
Deny and buried by a thousand lies
That fight to keep you blind

Tonight were longing for daylight
Burning the same lie
To find the ghost of you and I
We're running for midnight
Dying to ignite
To find the ghost of you and I
To find the ghost of you and I
To find the ghost of you and I

This was the day I feared the most
When all that's left inside is a memory and a ghost
Of everything we know
Oh!

Yeah the memory of everything we know
And I already know
That tonight
We're longing for daylight
Burning the same lie
To find the ghost of you and I
We're longing for daylight
Burning the same lie
To find the ghost of you and I
We're running for midnight
Dying to ignite
To find the ghost of you and I
To find the ghost of you and I
To find the ghost of you and I

Oh!
