

Shall Walk

Stradlin Izzy

And I, man, shall walk
In an ocean of dark
Like a breeze in the park
On to the next star
And I, man, shall know
Sure enough as I go
All will be fine, ooh yeah

Tried living in the underground
You move around, don't make a sound
You see a light and the hope grows
Throw you a line but your rope broke
La la la la

And I, man, shall see
To the ocean and sea
Like a breeze in your farm
On to the next barn
And I, man, shall know

Sure enough as I go
