Stradlin Izzy

You should have left that gun at home Should have left it all alone I'm not sure where you went wrong Should have left it back at home

You could have left it back at home
I'm sure it's illegal where you're gain'
Don't really need it - leave it alone
Should have left it back at home
Should have left it back at home

What I told you, hell
What I told you, hell
What I told you, hell
What I told you
What I told you, hell
What I told you, hell
What I told you
What I told you, hell
What I told you, hell

There's a roadblock and your done Should have left it back at home Your ride's over, no more fun Should have left it back at home Should have left it back at home Should have left it back at home Should have left it back at home
