

Cold Front

Straight Line Stitch

Don't turn away, you might miss me
As my soul starts to fade, fade away
What's left to say? Please forgive me
If I'm losing my faith, losing my faith

Don't get too close 'cause I stand alone
I've got no way out

Just go, I've turned my back on feeling
I'm cold, I've given up on dealing
Take my life, break the ice
I've got nothing inside

Just go, you hold a heart that is freezing
I'm cold, it's gonna break into pieces
Take my life, break the ice
I've got nothing inside

Don't be afraid of the emptiness
That stands in your way, your way
Stay with me, stay but my frozen lips
Just won't let me say, please stay

Don't get too close 'cause I stand alone
I've got no way out

Just go, I've turned my back on feeling
I'm cold, I've given up on dealing
Take my life, break the ice
I've got nothing inside

Just go, you hold a heart that is freezing
I'm cold, It's gonna break into pieces
Take my life, break the ice
I've got nothing inside, inside

It's winter in my soul
So just let me go
This heart can only break
There's only so much I can take, I can take

Don't turn away, you might miss me
As my soul starts to fade, fade away

Just go, I've turned my back on feeling
I'm cold, I've given up on dealing
Take my life, break the ice
I've got nothing inside

Just go, you hold a heart that is freezing
I'm cold, it's gonna break into pieces
Take my life, break the ice
I've got nothing inside, inside, inside
