

Remission

Straight Line Stitch

This is the last time
The last time that I sway
No longer will you dictate what I do or say

I've taken a leave of absence
I've taken a leave of the senses
And there's nothing in the world that can change this Life is diminished

I'm leaving you
And everything I knew
Tomorrow only leads to more sorrow
But I don't care
Pretend your unaware
I was never there...

No one cries more than I
Take my life but scared to die

I feel so incomplete
Everything is way beyond me
Watching my life go by
Standing on the sideline

I'm leaving you
And everything I knew
And everything is... You
I'm leaving you
And everything I knew
Tomorrow only leads to more sorrow
But I don't care
Pretend you unaware
I was never there
But I don't care
Pretend you unaware
I was never there

Standing on the sidelines
Waiting on the sidelines
Waiting for the right time

Life goes by (2x)
