

She Gave It All

The Stranglers

One night south of Holborn
Met a cute diversion there
Death in red light heaven
Found a place inside my cards

She gave it all to me
She gave it all to me

Inside up down side out
The search for meaning so profound
I say go she says let's
Biter twisting to the ground

I said stepping on a moving train without home
I'll dig a hole meet you where stars surround
Won't be used again

Day is fear black is light
Watch the hours whisper by
One foot in the alley
One foot in the gutter old friend

Stepping on a moving train without home
I'll dig a hole and meet you where the stars surround
I've had enough of the ball I want it set in stone spirit broke
Give me any name she'll take the same give us home!

Won't be used again

Night creeps on the lowlands
Haunts the strangers in the dark
Silent scream has come to speak of
Whispers in the past
City ate their hearts
