

Tomorrow Was The Hereafter

The Stranglers

Can't you see, Can't you see
That you're rocking the boat
Can't you see, Can't you see
That there isn't any hope
Can't you see, Can't you see
That our time is drawing near
Other worlds, other times
No more need for having fear

But I don't care about tomorrow
I just live for today
I don't know where we're going
But there's only one way

(Tomorrow was...)

Ain't you heard, ain't you heard
That bread ain't worth a lot
Ain't you heard, ain't you heard
That we're all going to rot
Ain't you seen, Ain't you seen
All the people's misery
What's the point in doing ought
About all this apathy

But I'm not beaten yet people
I guess you're not surprised
I won't take no for an answer
You can bet your sweet eyes

(Tomorrow was the hereafter)

Can't you see, Can't you see
That you're rocking the boat
Can't you see, Can't you see
That there isn't any hope
Can't you see, Can't you see
That our time is drawing near
Other worlds, other times
No more need for having fear

But I don't care about tomorrow
I just live for today
I don't know where we're going
But there's only one way

(Tomorrow was...)
