

Die Together

Strata

Bloodstains on my reason
Call for my surrender
Come on home so we can die together

I'm beggin' you to see what's inside of me
Close your eyes
So we can die together

There's no reason to confront my fears
There's no way we can compromise here
I can tell by the look in your eyes:
There's no reason to justify

Coming back with a grin on your face
And denying the sin in your taste
I can tell by the look in your eyes:
There's no reason to justify

Bloodstains on my reason
Call for my surrender
Come on home so we can die together

I'm beggin' you to see what's inside of me
Close your eyes
So we can die together
