

Elysium

Stratovarius

[Part I]

I've never felt like this before
Am I awoken or drifting
There's a hole in the sky
Am I alive? Did I survive?

Broken pictures on my wall
Story of fallen heroes
Now stare ahead with their blind eyes on
Lost horizon

Sometimes the traces of life with you
Are clearer in my mind than ever
I'm reaching...
This feeling
Is misleading me away from you

Tonight I'll find what I've been searching for
You can rip off my wings once more
I'm not afraid anymore
I'm not afraid anymore

Sometimes the traces of life with you
Are clearer in my mind than ever
I'm reaching...
This feeling
Is misleading me away from you

Tonight I'll find what I've been searching for
You can rip off my wings once more
I'm not afraid anymore
I am ready to fall
I'm not afraid anymore

[Part II]

I am lying on the frozen ground alone
I've got lost on my way
My time is up, I'm done

I need to find the key to eternal life and see
The joy, the smile, the overwhelming love of your heart
Is what I need

Give me a sign and show me the way to the sacred place

I can hear you calling my name from the distant skies
I'm holding a fallen angel in my arms

Your shadow lurking in the corner of my eye
I'm losing sense of what's real and what's a lie

I need to find the key to eternal life and see
The joy, the smile, the overwhelming love of your heart
Is what I need

Give me a sign and show me the way to the sacred place

I can hear you calling my name from the distant skies
I'm holding a fallen angel in my arms

How all began?
Your faith was not mine
Remedy this fallen life

I'm feeling burning wind in my hair
the earth is turning to red
I'm staring at the flaming skies
Too tired to fight, I just close my eyes

I can hear you calling my name from the distant skies
I'm holding a fallen angel in my arms

[Part III]

This life has been too long
There's hope everywhere I go
Do you believe in hope and faith
or eternity
In the end you will see
Let this soul be free

Eternal light
Blinded my eyes

Feel no sorrow
Joy will follow
Now lay down
And rest in my arms

Do you believe in hope and faith
Or eternity
In the end you will see
Let your soul be free
Be afraid no more
Just take my hand
I'll guide you thru the storm
We're finally home
