

Eternity

Stratovarius

When clouds are covering the sky
I can't help thinking w behind in a fading evening I can feel strange thoughts in my mind what if we aren't alone here there's a clone of everyone somewhere that duplicates all that we do not like me, not like you but our other ego

there ain't no wars or crises
only joy and compromises time has stood still

Why don't you take me there
wanna feel some...infinity
Why don't we just dare
Cause after all remains...

wanna feel some...infinity
Why don't we just dare
Cause after all remains...Eternity

A landscape with no trees a mist arising from the distance an illusion just for me or a proper reward and a chance

there ain't no wars or crises
time has stood still

Why don't we just dare
Cause after all remains...

Why don't we just dare
Cause after all remains...Eternity

Why don't we just dare
Cause after all remains...

Why don't we just dare
Cause after all remains...Eternity
Eternity. . .
Eternity. . .
Coz after all, after all remains...Eternity
