

Baby Blue Eyes

Stray Cats

Your baby blue eyes that you promised tonight
Have got me in a mess
Why don't you do right and quit tryin' to fight
Every time we get this stress?

Your sugar daddy and your money man
Well, ain't gonna treat you right
You better do something, baby, whether wrong or right
Oh baby, tonight's the night

They say that love is a wonderful game
And it happens everyday
Oh, why, oh, why did you pick on me
And make things happen this way?

You got stars in one eye and lies in the other
Now which am I gonna believe?
You better do something, baby, whether wrong or right
Oh baby, tonight's the night

They say that love is a wonderful game
And it happens everyday
Oh, why, oh, why did you pick on me
And make things happen this way?

You got stars in one eye and lies in the other
Now which am I gonna believe?
You better do something, baby, whether wrong or right
Oh baby, tonight's the night

Your baby blue eyes that you promised tonight
Have got me in a mess
Why don't you do right and quit tryin' to fight
Every time we get this stress?

Your sugar daddy and your money man
Well, ain't gonna treat you right
You better do something, baby, whether wrong or right
Oh baby, tonight's the night
