Stray from the Path

Start moving your feet, don't just run your mouth,
Recognition is weighing you down
(without a doubt) your always skipping a beat with no sound
It's so hard keeping up keeping up with the crowd,
Start moving your feet and don't just run your mouth
(without a doubt) just skipping a beat with no sound
It's so hard keeping up keeping up with the crowd.

And now I'm stuck here wondering how think its fine,
To put your heart into something for such a short time,
Smiles cheers and high fives, I'm surprised
It's enough in life for you to get by.
Notoriety is your motivation
High society crumbles with no foundation
(be prepared) in a country that cries wolf faking the heart
There hides a beast and he will tear you apart.

Post that pic with a hashtag,
You wanna get mentioned because you need the attention,
And you can repost this cause I don't give a shit
If you got something to say well you tag me in it.

Now your facing the changes while everyone complaint,
Your time is nothing but wasted I hope it tears you apart.
Running for cover like everyone and your mother
But in the end you will suffer but was the flag worth your heart?

In a country that cries that wolf faking the heart
There lies a beast and he will tear you apart,
I hope he tears you apart,
Don't look don't look don't look this wolf in the eyes,
Your just a sheep like the others.
Running for cover like everyone and their mother.

Running for cover, run for cover!
