

Ghosts

Street Dogs

Fly was the craziest guy in the park with a case of courage slung over his back
Had a fearless little spirit, he fought the best Got straight A's on every street corner test

Too many nights
he would crash and fall everyone scrambles to his ambulance call now he is dead and gone

So raise a toast,
for his ghost

Mannion was the life of the Erie, pub had the place in stitches singing twist and shout with a sawbuck in his pocket to kickstart a round, he always wore a smile, he never sport a frown

Yet on too many nights he didn't heed the call For the BOOZE, he risked it all
now he is dead and gone

Well it's been one long uphill climb
I lived a life so undefined it's not for any man to try but I could never resist
I was a sucker for all of this
Well it's been one long uphill climb
I was a sucker for all of this

Eulogize dead friends with songs penance given for all their wrongs never forget their ghosts
So raise a toast
