

White Collar Fraud

Street Dogs

You're power mad
You want everybody to act like you
Talking your honey to people
It's venom you really say
Let's act rich and let's dress vogue
Hide our background, sell our souls

But the one you let go is back to have her say

White collar fraud... Here's for the payback
White collar fraud... Tan's honesty attack
White collar fraud

So pathetic you
To the actual rich, you're a sycophant
Leech on them in store for a commission percent
Boxing out your co-workers
Gaining sales for your totals

Your fellow employees now have a say, via this salvo

White collar fraud... We're calling you out
White collar fraud... A backstabber without a doubt
White collar fraud... You don't intimidate us no more
White collar fraud

Hey you
You're a retail whore
Rotting in that upscale store
Your fellow employees
Detesting you every day

White collar fraud... We're calling you out
White collar fraud... A backstabber without a doubt
White collar fraud... You don't intimidate us no more
