

Come let us make bricks and burn them hard, We'll build a city with a tower for the world and climb so we can reach anything we may propose, anything at all

Build me up, tear me down
like a skyscraper
Build me up, then tear down
These joining walls
So they can't climb at all

I know why you tore it down that day
You thought, that if you got caught we'd all go away,
Like a spoiled little baby who can't come out to play,
You had your revenge

Build me up, tear me down
like a skyscraper
these joining walls
So they can't climb at all

Well madness reigned and paradise drowned
When Babel's walls came crashing down Now the echoes roar for a story writ that was hardly understood and never any good

like a skyscraper
these joining walls
So they can't climb at all

Build me up
Build me up
