

Toe to Toe

Streetlight Manifesto

Some day you will grow up and learn to lie
Just like your daddy did when he told you no one ever really dies
I hope that I'm not there when you realize
That those with their nose in the air will never look you in the eye

And you will go toe to toe
Like David and Goliath
Who will be Goliath?
And will you throw the stone?
I don't know yeah I don't know
Said the man with all of the answers
If he don't have the answers
How will I ever know?

I knew an old man
With nothing to do but wait
He invited himself
And he still showed up late

When it came to the end of the night he would always overstay
But I never had a reason to complain
Until the day he stopped coming by and I missed his company

[Chorus]

And you will go toe to toe
Like David and Goliath
They will be Goliath
And you will throw the stone
I don't know yeah I don't know
Said the man with all of the answers
If he don't have the answers
How will I ever know?

And I don't care
What you do with the little time everyone gets
As long as you do the math, choose a path that will never hurt anyone else
Although they'll hurt you make them sure they burned you
They will not forget

Someday I will find you and stop on by
And you'll say how have you been, and I'll say I've been fine
We will both know that it's a lie
Turns out what I figured out is I was wrong and you were right

[Chorus]
