

All The Children

Barbra Streisand

They tell us lies
They try to tell us who we are
But we have grown
And we remember in the future not to cry
You could be an angel
Look in your ancient eyes
What do you see?
Knowing what the power of your future could be
To fall and then to rise
It's knowing how it was and how that sets you free
All the children will send out
Love to everyone
All the children will dance and
Sing for you
Through the rhythm of ages
Blinded in the sun
All the children will dance and
Sing for you
So let them talk
They won't be hiding any secrets from
The eyes of a child
Things can never be but what they
Are to you
You could be an angel
Make all your dreams come true
All the children will send out
Love to everyone
All the children will dance and
Sing for you
Through the rhythm of ages
Blinded in the sun
All the children will dance and
Sing for you
Stand up
Freedom is the message in your song
In the light of what is swept away
There's someone there to catch you
When you fall
All the children will send out
Love to everyone
All the children will dance and
Sing for you (High above)
Through the rhythm of ages (See how they run)
Blinded in the sun (Got to be sure)
All the children will dance and (Watch how they shine)
Sing for you (This is love)
All the children will send out (Just like before)
Love to everyone (This is the place)
All the children will dance and (This is the time)
Sing for you (High above)
Through the rhythm of ages (See how they run)
Blinded in the sun (Got to be sure)
All the children will dance and (Watch how they shine)
Sing for you (This is love)
