

I'm All Smiles

Barbra Streisand

I'm all smiles, darling
You'd be too
If you knew, darling
All of the smiles were for you
I'm all chills, darling
Through and through
But my cold hands, darling
Warm to the touch of you
Rain hasn't fallen for days now
But rainbows are filling the skies
My heart must have painted those rainbows
Shining before my eyes
Can't you tell that I'm in love, darling?
Deep and true, with guess who, darling
Someone I'd die for Beg steal or lie for
Eat humble pie for Someone to fly
To the sun, moon and sky for Someone to live for
To love with and cry for
And that someone is you...
