

I Won't Be the One to Let Go

Barbra Streisand

I have dreams for you and me
And wishes that will last
And live beyond eternity

Summer's gone, winter's on
Can we weather everything
Our eyes have yet to see?

As the years go by
I promise you that I...

I will be the one to run to
When the nights are long
I'll be there when winds begin to blow
Even when it seems
That everything is going wrong

This I swear

I swear

I won't be the one to let go

Life gets tough

Ooh...

Roads get rough

Oooh...

Who knows what awaits us round the bend

Count on me, faithfully

It could never end

And through rain or shine
And every cloudy sky

I will be the one to run to
when the nights are long
I'll be there when winds begin to blow
Even when it seems
That everything is going wrong

This I swear

This I swear

I won't be the one to let go

I'll be there

I'll be there

Anytime you need me

You'll know where I am

You'll know just where i am
And everywhere

Everywhere

Anytime you're lost
Just turn around

Just turn around

I will be your light in the night
And I promise
That even when it seems

This I swear

This I swear

I won't be the one

To let go....

To let go....

This I swear

I swear

I won't be the one to let go

To let Go...
