

Maybe

Barbra Streisand

Maybe
Maybe you wouldn't believe it
If only I change
You say I'm acting just like a kid
Well, maybe I'm doing
What I'm doing
'Cause I'd done what I did
When I was a kid
Maybe, maybe...
Maybe I'm fooling myself
More than anyone can
Maybe I will find another man
But how can I enjoy his touch
Knowing that I love you so much
Baby. . .Baby, oh, baby
I could learn to love your mother
And your mother's sister
And if she visited all the relatives
I swear I'd miss her
And everyday before you go to work
I'd stop and kiss her
Maybe, maybe, maybe
Things would be better
If only a letter would come
Happiness is easier for some
I promise I will try to please you
Can't you see how much I need you, baby...
Baby if you wanna hurt me
Laugh at me but don't desert me, baby...
Baby if you don't believe me
Laugh at me but please don't leave me
