

Snowbound

Barbra Streisand

Here we are
Helplessly snowbound
Too alone lost in the storm
And though the wind cries all around us
Still our love keeps us warm
Unafraid, Unafraid snowbound forever
Here with love locked in our arms
And if the world never should find us
In our hearts we won't care
For so deep is our love
And if the world never should find us
In our hearts we don't care
For so deep is our looooooooooooooooooove
