

Solitary Moon

Barbra Streisand

When the night
Is wrapped around us
And the dawn might come too soon
When the only light
That's found us
Is the solitary moon

When the songbird in a willow
Sings a soft
And songs from two
Once again
You share my pillow
Making love to me
Tenderly
Here, as we share
The silent moon

As it slowly sails above us
In it's solitary flight
Seems the moon
Must shurely love us
As it based us in it's flight

Say that we can spent the day
Through a sunlet afternoon
Let your kisses
Say you stay here
And make love to me
Tenderly
Here, as we share
The silent moon.
