

Reason To Care

Stretch Arm Strong

How can you right a wrong? why does it take so long? i know i'm not
That strong. how can we carry on? justify then separate. tell myself
To communicate with my surroundings. get in touch. i think i'm better
Off right here inside. a place that i know a place to reconcile
. all that
I wanted and all that i see. all that i am and all i've grown to be.
Pushing forward and moving ahead digging deeper than i ever had
. I've got a reason to care. with you i'm willing to share my reason to Care.
