

Gunpowder

Strike Anywhere

I see you Staring out from the printed page the calm before the storm in your breath
The sunset on the side of your face the moments between life and death
One truth for the men who pushed
you into death
and one truth for the rest of us
we may be down
but not out
We're standing right in back of you Static quotations, historical lies
Don't mean nothing
when your children die
just one more breath
the last word on your lips
The dust and the bruise
The gunpowder we choose

Soldiers of the hopeful masses optionless working classes sending money home to keep illusion alive standing right in back of me

Static quotations, historical lies
Don't mean nothing
just one more breath
the last word on your lips

you into death
and one truth for the rest of us
(The rest of us)
we may be down
but not out

Don't mean nothing
just one more breath
