

Road Warrior

Striker

Torched and twisted metal tearing through the night a warrior stands alone
waiting for the fight

Dust upon the ground and thunder from the sky killers all around your world's about to die

Road warrior - on the run

Apocalyptic posermashing :Ian

He stands and the fights with nothing to fear
the sounds of gunshots
ring in his ear

Fire off a round
his target explodes
hear pounding faster
they race round the road

Rage and fury
death in his eyes
you'll never escape
he'll seal your fate
in the end
you all shall die

Road warrior - On the run
