Let's just say for the moment that I said to be quiet When I know I'll be hoping that my wrongs will be right Lets just say, lets just say
I'm sorry, lets just be, let's just be
Well, please wait for me

I can't even tell you how much i need to see you, see you again Please do your part to be kind 'cause you know it's my heart milking my mind You would leave and i would stay It's not like me to be this way

Please wait for me
I can't even tell you how much i need to see you, see you again
Just wait for me
I can't even tell you how much i need to see you, see you again
My heart is breaking
My heart is shaking
Its breaking
Please, wait for me
I can't even tell you how much i need to see you again
