The Strokes

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Yeah, you don't have to be so loud
Everyone can hear you in this whole damn crowd
Don't have to try so hard
I think they got the message, you were out of your mind

It's not so good to see you this upset
But the next generation will forget

They're always scared of where their daughters been
Cause who knows, they could be alone with men
They never wanna see or hear or think about again?

Is it gone?

Don't have to lick my face
Every one can see that you're a psycho in displace
That the next generation will forget
Where their daughters been
Or who knows they could be alone with men
They're never gonna let you understand
Or show you what it is to be a man
You don't wanna sit down and talk and hear
You don't think anyone is in your ear
I never wanna see your face again
It's no ones fault

Is it gone?
Gone

They're always scared of where their daughter's been
Cause who knows, they could be alone with men
They never wanna see or hear or think about again?

Is it gone?
I hope that, that, that it's gone
