No More Hell to Pay

I am taking it a day at a time and I don't care what the doubting voices say I am lifting up the Name that will shine and the light of heaven's brighter everyday

Oh, I know that it's rough though I know there is pain Even so when it's tough I will not be ashamed!

If the dawn reveals the end of days I'll follow You till there's no more hell to pay! You have given me a gift I won't deny and You're offering a better world to come The sorrow of tomorrows left so far behind with the joy of what this life will soon become

If I'm deep in the storm, if I'm caught in the rain From the time I was born it's You that always remained!

If the sun has fallen from the sky and the stars that shine begin to hide When the night has stolen everyday I'll follow You till there's no more hell to pay!

If the sun has fallen from the sky and the stars that shine begin to hide When the night has stolen everyday I'll follow You till there's no more hell to pay!
