Two Time Woman

Stryper

Livin' life on a wire
Never knowin' what to do
Cryin' to find me a reason to stay with you
Then I saw you with someone
Oooh babe now I know

I gotta lay low, just let go
I gotta say no, girl just go
I'm sayin' two time girl I don't want you to stay
I took a real blow, hurt me so
You hit me real low, now I know
I'm sayin' two time woman don't come back this way

Hangin' out at a party
All my friends everywhere
Thought you were right beside me but you weren't there
Then I caught you with someone else
That's the end of the show

I took a real blow, hurt me so
You hit me real low, now I know
I'm sayin' two time woman don't come back this way
Don't come back
