

Despise

Stuck Mojo

I remember the motto corporate rock sucks,
now I look at Green Day it must be payday.
Ditto, ditto, could you please play a tune a little alternative nation talent must be on vacation.
You say the underground is metal music now come take some lessons learn how to throw down.
You little Weezer, you became a Breeder Filter through Gin and Blossom to begin.

We're the alternative to the alternative, heavy is where it's at.

Ahhh!
You become what you despise!

With your fake accent Rancid-smelling ass signing phat contracts but you tell me will it last.
Yo let's burn a Bush, paint a Silverchair back to black ask me if I even care.
We'll in Flame your Lips crack your Lemonhead blow up an Oasis
Blind Melons
dead and 120 Minutes of bitches sounding like Crows Count them all before you start to blow!

We're the alternative to the alternative, heavy is where it's at.

Ahhh!
You become what you despise!
