

Some Days

Sturgill Simpson

I'm getting pretty tired of the state things are in Sometimes I feel like cutting a vein, just watching it bleed I'm tired of laying it down, getting nothing on the other end and people only wanting to be your friend when you got something they need

Well I'm getting pretty tired of being treated like competition
When the only one that can hold me down is inside my head Whats a honky gotta do around here to get a little recognition Start to think I might be worth more to everybody if I was dead

I'm getting pretty tired sitting around and wasting time I'm tired of taking blame when I ain't done nothing wrong I'm tired of other people trying to take what's mine and I'm tired of y'all playing dress up and trying to sing them old country songs

Well some days you kill it and some days you just choke
Some days you blast off and some days you just smoke Well now maybe I do and maybe I don't Everybody says they'll be there but in the end y'all know they won't
