

Your Love Is For Sale

Sturm und Drang

You've been running around
You've been nowhere to find
Drive me out of my mind again

Don't you tell me you're mine
That there's no other guy
Don't you play on a smile again

I know where you've been
That you're living in sin
That you'll just have me fooled again

I should let you go, girl, I know
But your chains around my heart won't let go

Your love is for sale
Love to the highest bidder
Your love is for sale
Your love goes to all that will sell
Your love is for sale
No more, I am done
You know that you've won
Your love is for sale

You're a demon disguised
You're the queen of goodbyes
You're a devil that can't be tamed

Oh, your cruel cruel lies
Got me so paralysed
And I just can't escape this pain

I should let you go, girl, I know
But your chains around my heart won't let go

Your love is for sale
Love to the highest bidder
Your love is for sale
Your love goes to all that will sell
Your love is for sale
No more, I am done
You know that you've won
Your love is for sale

You tell me that I am the one
But I'll never be that, I am never enough
And I am too proud to complain
Just too tired of these games that are there to stay

Your love is for sale (2x)

Your love is for sale
No more, I am done
You know that you've won (4x)
