So they say that a man can't live in this world If he's wearing his heart on his sleeve I can

And they say that a man can't understand What a women needs when she cries I can I can

And I can see you standing in the yard
Tending the roses in your garden
The sun is shining through your cotton dress
And I will freeze this moment here in time
I could live forever in your garden
Ah yes
Yes I can

Fool doesn't know what he's missing the most It's a bitch of a place to be in Here I am

How would I know I could give up the ghost And still hold all your dreams in my hand Here I am

Here I am

And I can see you standing in the yard
Tending the roses in your garden
The wind is blowing through your golden hair
And I will freeze this moment here in time
I could live forever in your garden
Ah yes
Yes I can

And I can see you standing in the yard
Tending the roses in your garden
The sun is shining through your cotton dress
And I will freeze this moment here in time
I could live forever in your garden
Oh yes
Yes I can

And I can be your man Mmm, yes I can
