

Won't you say you'll sleep with me tonight
And if you don't can't you stay, and keep me out of sight
Coz you know, i can't be sleeping all alone
I enjoy your presence on the phone
Follow me you're wastin' too much time
You're not forgiven
It's ok, my boyfriend's feeling lame
So we don't have to wait and must not feel ashamed
It's alright, take my hand and turn off all the lights
Don't be nervous things will turn out right
Don't you feel you're doing the right thing?
Don't start complaining
Won't you stay and sleep for tonight
If my boyfriend comes he won't even know
That you and i had sex seven times
You can say that
[Bridge]
You can say that
