

Internal Riot

Subhumans

I wanna complain 'cos I think I like it
I get deranged when it's all gone quiet
You never have guessed the internal riot
I only drink 'cos it helps me think
That I understand all the reasons why it...

It burns like some communal strength
Unrealised hence "unrealistic"
"Unite the world" but what it meant
Was needing targets, less fantastic
Fantastic

A unity of mutiny
Against the lie that we're all free
Sparks a continuity of invention sparked by desperate glee
Told it's useless to keep on and on and on and on Fired the reaction even more

Now you're damned if you're right
Damned if you're wrong
Damned if you're right
Damned if you're wrong
Damned if you're right - Damned if you're wrong (2x)
This is what the anger's for (2x)
