

We opened up our eyes girl
To see that everything's alright
My vocal chords are healing
From arguing with you all night

Wait a minute cause girl
I mean it when I say
I got to have you
Oh yes indeed

Cause it's my way
Or Pacific Coast highway
Either way you won't find me
And you don't care
Because it's my way
Or Pacific Coast highway
I hit the road you won't find me
And that's all you know

The shell remains been broken
Every word has been said
I'm ready to give you the reigns and control
But not my head

Wait a minute, wait a minute cause girl
I mean it when I say
I got to have you
And oh, you're gonna have to change
If you're gonna stay
Oh yes indeed

Cause it's my way
Or Pacific Coast highway
Either way you won't find me
And you don't care
Because it's my way
Or Pacific Coast highway
I hit the road you won't find me
And that's all you know

I thought you might like to know
I've been doin' just fine
Walkin' on my own lately, yeah
The sun has been shining down on me
Telling me to walk away,
Walk away, walk away

If it were that easy
Then I would be
Far away...

Cause it's my way
Or Pacific Coast highway
Either way you won't find me
And you don't care
I tried to show you
But you never gave reasons

Your attitude's like the seasons
That's all you know

Cause it's my way
Either way you won't find me
And you don't care
I tried to show you
But you never gave reasons
Your attitude's like the seasons
