

Angelo

Sublime

Babe i was thinkin
time we ran away
sounds so good to me but i am still the boss no time for funny games that aint even why i came baby i'm in love
cause you were messin with a brother under the club why did i not see how did i not know
open up the bedroom door angelo walked through the door pulled out a shotgun now i know whats up but i would still be true to you i never ever doubt doubt doubt baby theres no way out but theres a halo over me dont stop to think about my wife and family if i ever realize that i won the war
i wanted to believe that god's in control cause i know its true and i'm alone baby if i pace my timing will improve prove, prove, prove, prove

And i play you to make the blind show go on
