

Come Back Home

Suburban Legends

Why did you take such a long time to come back home
Just a crack of the door then you ran out
Never come back home, never come back home
Everything twitch is much to late it's under my spell you hesitated
So excited playful whiskers thats to much
Where you are I think your lost
I'm just fixing my position whatcha going to do I'll run
I get get so excited and my heart is ignited
Biting though the skin in my face yeah
Why did you take such a long time to come back home
(To come back home)
Just a crack of the door then you ran out
Never come back home yeah
My little kittie get her grub on when she rubs my face and my tummy
And I don't know why she gets so excited
All this time when I though she was screaming I never thought it was about leaving me
Your tiny little heart seemed pounded so furiously
I get so excited now my heart is ignited
Biting though the skin in my face yeah
Why did you take such a long time to come back home
(to come back home)
Just a crack of the door then you ran out never come back home
Why do you love me, why do you need me
It makes no sense to me when I know just where you should be
Why do you love me, why do you need me when you leave me
I know (I know) just come home
Now my appetite is gone no will to go on my love has run away yeah
Why did you take such a long time to come back home
(To come back home)
Just a crack of the door then you ran out
Never come back home
Why do you love me, why do you need me
It makes no sense to me when I know just where you should be
Why do you love me, why do you need me when you leave me
I know (I know) just come home yeah just come back home
come back home
