

"Grandfather used to sit me on his knee, and tell stories of old,
Of knights and kings, of everything, of men brave and bold.
But one man who stood out in my mind was noble as can be,
He tried his very best to set his people free."
He yacked all day, ruled the land, with an iron fist,
The common folk we're being choked, we're really getting pissed

But than believe me and you will see the rage of Don Diego,
Tried to strike back, to strike and become a hero.
It's Don Diego, and he's coming to save the day,
Hombre en negro, he's down and out in LA.
Hombre en negro, he's known throughout the land,
Don Diego, he's willing to lend a hand.
He was a tall spaniard with a sharp sword, who rode through the night,
He had his way, with the akaday makin' the wrong things right.
He would go/go go/go go/go go/go, he gave back to the poor,
Believe you me, individually it was time to settle the score.
It's Don Diego, and he's coming to save the day,
Hombre en negro, he's down and out in LA.
Hombre en negro, he's known throughout the land,
Don Diego, he's willing to lend a hand.
Don't go around now scream people that he meets in the city,
Everybody look around in the town and on the ground,
Raise up the roof, raise up the roof, raise up the roof for the man in black,
He's come to save the day, from that evil and del monchay,
Won't have a chance against the man in black,
Raise up the roof for the man in black, he's gonna get you back

He's gonna get it all back.
It's Don Diego, and he's coming to save the day,
Hombre en negro, he's down and out in LA.
Hombre en negro, he's known throughout the land,
Don Diego, he's willing to lend a hand.
