

Let's Be Friends

Suburban Legends

I've got this something
That gives the wrong presumption
Due to the fact
That I've got a little gumption
Write me up
I don't care
Front page of Yesterday's news
I've got some sort of game that's coming to me
When everybody plays yeah it's not so healthy
How many times can my ego get shot
Gotta find another way to take it to the top
What if I told you I could wrestle a bear
Would it impress you if I wasn't wearing underwear
Yesterday, yeah you killed my worth
I made the move and you crushed my world
Stab me in the face cause my heart never mends
When all I hear is let's just be friends
Shorties all sing it loud
Let's be friends
Step one you gotta peacock your flare
Step two freeze them out like you don't care
When the silver bullet strikes you get slapped in the face
The game never works when your heart's in the right place
Oh my god my confidence is peaking
Shiny shirt for my disco teching
Who would of ever thought a power like this
Would live in the handbook for the dateless
Lurking a set from the side of the room
Better seal the deal before she gets to know the real you
Yesterday, yeah you killed my worth
I made the move and you crushed my world
Stab me in the face cause my heart never mends
When all I hear is let's just be friends
Shorties all sing it loud
Let's be friends.
Shot down again
It's a nightmare that never ends
Flip through these pages like a thousand times
I got a honey on my mind I got plenty of time
And I'm dressed to kill cheapest ass player your hearts I'm about to steal (I'm so good looking, oh I know you're attracted to me
Do you wanna kiss? No wait! I don't want you to kiss me.
I wanna kiss myself! Oh! Silver bullet!)

Yesterday, yeah you killed my worth
I made the move and you crushed my world
Stab me in the face cause my heart never mends
When all I hear is let's just be friends
Shorties all sing it loud
Let's be friends
Yesterday, yeah you killed my worth
I made the move and you crushed my world
Stab me in the face cause my heart never mends
When all I hear is let's just be friends
Shorties all sing it loud
Let's be friends

All I hear is let's just be friends
Shorties all sing it loud
Let's be friends
