

Open Up Your Eyes

Suburban Legends

She's a queen from the big town, baby
A pretty rich girl
Yes, she runs this city
Hanging out with her girlfriends every night
Not happy with her current situation
Messed up all the public relations
She's reached the end of the line
Hold on (hold on)
You're all wrong (all wrong)
Stop wasting your time
Stop wasting your time
Wake up in the morning at the break of dawn
Turn the radio up to your favorite song
Stop wasting your time
Stop wasting your
You've got to open up your eyes
Don't let the moment pass you by
Open, open up your eyes
(Open, open up your eyes)
Open, open up your eyes
Just a guy from a no name county
You can't live big if you ain't got money
Working hard just to stay alive
Sick and tired of the 9 to 5
Dried up of inspiration
One, two many complications
He's reached the end of the line
Used up wishes
Your moving pictures
The world doesn't care to see
And now you're living just to even the score
And everyone's your enemy
Find out a possibilities
That child, just ain't a simple thing
You say that it's not enough
[Chorus 2]
