

Unbelievable

Suburban Legends

Uh oh, I think my body's in trouble
Uh oh, she went and bought me a double
What's this? she said just shut and drink it
Grabbed my ass and said the night is just beginning
Seven drinks later, think I'm ready
Girls to the left and to the right to keep me steady
Knocked every table as I stumbled to the floor
My girl is getting better looking than she was before
Oh, the night is getting heavy
[Chorus:]
Why don't we float onto the floor
Got me feeling like a kid in a candy store
Your love is unconceivable
Sugar from your lips down to your hips
It's, it's, it's unbelievable
Clap, clap your hands
Clap, clap your hands
As we move onto the dance floor
She's sipping diet coke
Doing the robot till its last call
Don't you think that its wonderful to me?
That plus sized woman that'll sweep you off your feet
Too many days, too many ways I like to chase that tail around
Never trust a big butt and a smile
Cuz that girls knows how to get down
Ooh, you've got me begging
Ooh, you've got me sweating
Baby stop your misbehaving
Girl you've got to cool it down
Ooh, watch out!
[Chorus x4]
