

Bad Forest

Suburban Tribe

Misty voice is calling, calling for my name seducing me to enter, giving shelter from the rain
Misty voice is calling, calling for my name
I can't resist the attraction, lighting up the flame

Forest is unexplored, Forest is untamed Forest is forbidden, it's never the same it's eerie
Forest is a riddle, Forest is a mystery Forest is magic, you see what you wanna see it's tempting

Like sirens trees are wailing waving their arms invitingly enchanted the lone drifting soul

Forest is a lung, a perfect place to hide Forest is a grave, the haven under the sun it's eternal

Forest is just as evil as I am inside reflecting images of my mind Forest can deprive my freedom drown me in her deep embrace or she can give me peace
