Drowning

Suburban Tribe

I feel all this silence turning into noise So slowly It's getting so loud I will miss your voice Pure and holy And it gets so loud I can't hear And I'm losing the far and the near Without you I will now disappear Disappear in your embrace I feel all this silence turn into a void That's growing I'm stuck in an ending I cannot avoid I'm choking And it gets so close I can't see And slowly getting inside you and me Without you I will now disappear Disappear in your embrace I've been drowning in your arms Mesmerized by your charm I've been drowning in your arms Can't reach the surface I can't breathe I'm in too deep
