

Shadows and Silhouettes

Suburban Tribe

I'm the shadow while you shine
Sculptured features divine
I'm the sadness behind your fortune and fame
You'll take the credit I'll take the blame

I'm a silhouette of your charm
The broken line on your palm
I'm a hidden flaw in the true excellence
I'll sacrifice for your innocence

Shadows and silhouettes
The demons inside your head
Uncover your secrets and regrets
Shadows and silhouettes

I'm reflecting all your grace
The glamour and perfect taste
I'm a cheap fake of your pure elegance
The opposite of your radiance

Shadows and silhouettes
The demons inside your head
Shadows and silhouettes
The demons inside your head
I'm hiding inside
I'm hiding inside your head
