

Afterthoughts & Tv

Suckers

All our jokes came undone
Tried to choke back some fun
Then we'll take a cab if you what we have

Twisted up all the looks
Expressions forged that we took
From people that we've see in glossy magazines

We'll find a simple way to talk
We'll find a way to turn it off
And after thoughts and then some TV
Burn the edges of everything I see
I imagine what I'd like to be
Sure is different than what I believe

Time your mom called you home
The time your mom called you back
Investigate your needs
Oh, how ever you please

Saw the clothes on the floor
Felt the walk from your door
Heard your laugh style chores, your collegiate wars

Take a down south
Keep the words in your mouth
Presenting the air
My concentration is repaired

We'll find a simple way to talk
We'll find a way to turn it off
And after thoughts and then some TV
Burn the edges of everything I see
I imagine what I'd like to be
Sure is different than what I believe
